

Tribo-Chemie GmbH strengthens management

The managing partners of Tribo-Chemie, a medium-sized company based in Hammelburg, Axel Bastian and Barbara Bastian, have appointed their son Felix Bastian as managing director.

In 2013 he joined Tribo-Chemie, which specializes in the production of release agents for high-pressure die casting and lubricants for the forging industry. Responsible as authorized officer Felix Bastian contributed to the success of the developing and steadily growing company in every respect. The expansion of the management team aims to meet the challenges of technological change and the demands of their customers in national and international markets. Tribo-Chemie's objectives are to focus even more on intensive customer care and the development of products that are tailored to the customers' individual needs and applications.
